Dedication

MISS FRANCES SNOW

For her patience and guidance as a teacher, her strong Christian character and her kind tolerant ways, her understanding when our time doesn't seem our own, and most of all her friendship to each of us, we, the Seniors of the Class of 1958, do hereby dedicate this second edition of THE ILIAD to Miss Frances Snow.

Foreword. . .

We, the Iliad Staff, sincerely hope that your memory will be refreshed and your thoughts filled with happiness as you turn the pages of this book. May you cherish this annual as a remembrance of the events of the year 1957-58. We hope that it will help you to recall many pleasant thoughts of Southwest High.

Principal's Message

The first two years of Southwest High School is history. In most areas our accomplishments have been beyond our original expectations. To those students who are graduating go our thanks for every effort that has been made in behalf of the school. To those students who will be back with us next year, let's pledge ourselves to greater effort and greater accomplishments.

Class Poem

Our high school days are like a book,
And through the leaves we slowly turn—
Turn aback to past events
That float nostalgically through our minds.

Pictures and diagrams are not needed.
The sweetest of all our memories
Are deeply etched upon our minds,
While others come to be obscure.

We read how apprehensively
We passed through many daring doors,
Not realizing we indeed were
Each a part of all the plan.

With difficult beginnings behind us,
We put ourselves into new routines
Which proved with completion of each duty,
A growth in every way of life.

With a smile and a tear for the past,
In our album of memories we read,
And with a prayer and a hope we begin anew,
The yet unread book, the book of life.

SUE BREWER
LARRY WARNER

Class Song

As we leave Southwest High
We hold our heads up high
For we're not afraid to start anew,
As life's way bids us come
To join hands with time
With God's help, we will try to succeed
We'll walk in the light, we'll strive for our goal
Tho' the road be rough and long
Walk on, walk on with hope in our hearts,
And we'll never walk alone,
We'll never walk alone.

Senior Class History

Since the members of the class of 1958 had their elementary school training in at least four different units, it is almost impossible to assemble a complete history. But in September of 1956, we were among those who opened the door to a new and different school life in the newly consolidated Southwest. There were new friends, new teachers, and much greater opportunities than we had known before. It is here we start our story.

Juniors! Upperclassmen with privileges and responsibilities! One hundred and forty of us! What a thrill! All traditions and standards of achievements were in the formative stage, and we could have a part in their beginning.

We liked "Trojans" for the name by which our teams are known and our colors, red, black, and white. The school paper was named the "Odyssey," and our annual, "The Iliad."

Junior Class officers were: President, Bill Brewer; Vice-Presidents, Reid Craft, Alton Jones, Dick Cooksey, and Etta Dunn; Secretary, Dare Holder; and Treasurer, Mike Van Doeren. Our Sponsors were Miss Snow, Mrs. Russell, Mr. Moody, and Mrs. Butner. At Thanksgiving we suffered a great loss when Mr. Moody died. However, we were happy to have Mrs. Ray Simpson to finish the year with us.

Junior Marshals, chosen on the basis of scholarship and popularity, were: Bill Brewer, chief; Patsy Bingham, James Canter, Dorothy Jones, Dare Holder, Mike Van Doeren, Pat Sink, Dick Cooksey, Janice Bodsford, and Walter Taylor. In the April Student Council elections of officers to serve during 1957-58, Mike Van Doeren was elected president; Dorothy Jones, editor-in-chief of the Iliad; and Patsy Bingham, chief cheerleader.

Our class project for the year was a presentation called, "Memories Are Made of This." A combination of our amateur talents produced a show which was very successful.

Our most important undertaking for the year was the Junior-Senior Prom. Our Decorations and arrangements were made in keeping with the popular "Calypso" theme. We danced to the music of the Wake Forest Combo who played in a south sea atmosphere.

September, 1957, and we were seniors! In 1946 that seemed the unattainable goal. Again there are officers, sponsors, projects, activities. The usual routine, but because we are Seniors, they are more exciting than before. The officers were: President, Bill Brewer; Vice-Presidents, Henry Ebert, R. M. Hicks, Tommy Stewart, and Dick Reynolds; Secretary, Gail Young; and Treasurer, Juanita Byers. The sponsors were: Miss Cook, Miss Campbell, Mr. Wilson, and Miss Farthing. Some of the activities were: The election of superlatives and Class Day officers, the choice of class colors, flower, and motto, dedication of annual, and selection of mascots. The superlatives chosen were students who well deserved this honor. Our class colors are red and white with the red rose. In preparation for Class Day, Sue Brewer and Larry Warner wrote the Class Poem; Dare Holder and Mike Van Doeren, the History; Barbara Sprinkle and Bill Brewer, the Prophecy; and Last Will and Testament, Patsy Bingham and Walter Taylor. The Class Song was written by Dorothy Jones and Tommy Stewart.

The Seniors hoped they established a tradition in the presentation of the Christmas Program. The old familiar carols brought us closer in spirit as we sang them together in keeping with the spirit of Christmas.

One of the most satisfying activities was participation in chartering the Southwest Chapter of the National Honor Society. Walter Taylor was the first president.

At the end of the year came the climax of our high school years. There was an Awards Night, Kid's Day and Senior picnics, Class Day, Baccalaureate sermon, and graduation exercises. Each had its thrill and excitement. There were tears of joy and sorrow, gladness because of a goal attained, sadness because of separations, and all the other mixed emotions that go with graduation.

Into our new experiences we carry happy memories of Southwest, gratitude for all its advantages and the challenge of our motto: "We Rise, by lifting others."

Class Prophecy

The Senior Class of 1958 is meeting in 1970 at the Rocket Room of the Green Cheese Plantation Club on the moon. The club was built by the famous architect, HUBERT BARNEY. It's so much fun to find out what the '58 graduates are doing now since we live in Space. Chief Waiter here at the banquet is RONALD BRYANT. ALLEN BLACK entertains, and is still going strong as Fats Domino. LARRY BRANDON, MARTIN BINKLEY and BILLY WILLIAMS drove the zip-planes which brought us to the banquet. WAYNE KETNER, ALAN MOCK, GORDON YATES, and SAM WRIGHT designed these zip-planes.

A new word has been added to PHYLLIS MAINES Dictionary. The word "martini" means "little people of Mars." Some of the '58 graduates are married and now live on Mars. Quite a few of the Martians appearing at our banquet with their little ones are SUZANNE DAVIS, BARBARA COCHRANE, JANET STEWART, MELBA LEDFORD, PHYLLIS PHINNIX, LORENE SPAINHOUR, and KATHERINE PHILLIPS.

The Jones Boys of Mars--not Manny, Mac, and Jack--but, LARRY, TOMMY, and ROY got together on a new deal. They're planning to drop a bomb on Pluto. Wow! Will Mickey be mad!

At Marstown High School the faculty is almost completely made up of '58 graduates of Southwest. PEGGY YOW teaches English. MIKE VAN DOEREN is mathematician and teacher of Physics. PATRICIA SINK teaches Home Economics. MONA DAVIS also teaches Home Economics. Her mother forgot to hook up her antenna, and she forgot her lesson. JEANNE MYERS had to tell her. The Geometry teacher is none other than DICK COOKSEY. KATHRYN WHEELING is basketball coach there. BARBARA GOAD, BONNIE DALTON, SHIRLEY EDWARDS, BARBARA JONES, BECKY HAUSER, LORENE SPAINHOUR, GLENDA SHEETS, and VIRGINIA WYATT are on the team.

Another famous basketball team is the Trojan Space Trotters, coached by RAY SPAINHOUR. JOE BREWER and ALTON JONES seem to be the stars of the team. PATSY BINGHAM leads cheers for them.

TEDDY ALEXANDER owns and operates Teddy-Ready's Beauty Shop. JOANNE McCLAMROCK is the head beautician. Her favorite customer is CAROLYN JOHNSON, who always insists on a new zip-permanent with no rollers.

PATTY HOOTS and DOT WHITMAN are operators for the Zippy Nippy Telephone Company, of which DAVID CHURCH is president.

HILDA HANCOCK gives a lot of parties to which all the socialites such as ELSIE SHORE, JUDY CAMPBELL, EDDIE GREENE, MILLER HARPER and DEANNA BODENHAMER, seem to flock.

DIANE BEAUCHAMP works in a dress shop owned and operated by LINDA BEAUCHAMP.

BILLY BESHEARS and ANN KETNER are comedians on JOHNNY BOYER'S T. V. Show, produced by HAROLD CONRAD.

JAMES CLOPTON owns Clip-Clop's Shoe Shop on Thirteenth Street, Marstown. GAYLE CHADWICK is head shoe clerk.

DOROTHY JONES demonstrates sewing machines for the Ringer Sewing Machine Company. ROSA CASE works as a seamstress there.

Another demonstrator is ROBERT BLACKBURN, who always could type so well! He now works for "Speedy Reedy" Typewriting Company which is owned by ROBERT SMITH.

Religious Education Director at Marstown Methodist Church is none other than SUE BREWER. The pastor of the church is KENNETH EASTER.

MARY JONES is editor of the Moon Tribune where DONALD MINOR is head of the Photography Department. JANICE BODSFORD serves as chief typist.

DAVID SMITH and ANN LEWIS are still in the laminating business. Now they even laminate foods.

Speaking of food, FLOYD COX is working for a new drive-in restaurant owned by DOUGLAS GOBBLE.

JAMES CANTER is the famous obstetrician at Marstown Emergency Hospital, with GLENDA WALL as his receptionist. JUANITA BYERS and SARAH REECE are nurses at the hospital.

ETTA DUNN is the receptionist for the most experienced dentist in town. He is none other than FREDDIE ZIGLAR.

BILL VOGLER runs a radium-filler-upper station on the main street of Marstown.

WAYNE TUTTLE, having had experience picking apples in Idaho, is still doing so in JIM FULTON's apple orchard.

PAULA DRANE and KENT DAVIS make up the famous dance team which is performing at the banquet tonight. LARRY WARNER is singing, and his latest, "Catch a Falling Star, and put it in a Jar," has already sold one billion. JUNIOR STEWART also sings his new tune "Zoom Around The Moon."

ARCHIE SLATER and RUBY SLATER are the co-owners of "Slaters Slaughter House."

Why, look who just came in! It's none other than DICK REYNOLDS, Mayor of Pluto.

GAYE WALL, who used to sew so well, now makes dresses designed by BARBARA STEWART.

Handsome DAVID CAUDLE models clothing for F. and M. Clothiers, Inc.

BILL BREWER is chief chemist for the Zip-Zoom Laboratories with DARE HOLDER as efficient secretary. REVA COOK, whose favorite subject in high school was chemistry, works at the laboratory too.

HENRY "Butch" EBERT is now a famous zip-car racer.

My, I think I detect a little noise over in the corner. Oh! It's only RICHARD HENNING arguing with GARY HARPER about a zip-plane model designed by D. C. MOCK.

GLENN PILCHER certainly does have a nice little pilot for his private zip-plane. Why, it's none other than CAROLYN PICKETT.

KAY PFAFF is making $332. a week, taking shorthand for that famous lawyer of the Universe, JAMES BRITT.

What a noise! JIM BERRIER has just wrecked a new zip-plane! He came down a little too low and hit the new strato-line built by the architect, WILSON SPARKS.

WALTER TAYLOR, President of Zippo Chewing Gum Company just walked in. With him is EVELYN COX, his secretary.

BARBARA SPRINKLE is head model now for Steve Moser's Modeling Agency. She and her boss just arrived in a new zip-plane built by DAVID SWEAT.

Look over there! DORIS NEEDHAM and EDWIN NEWSOME are engrossed in a new book by the novelist R. M. HICKS.

PHYLLIS HAUSER always was a little "cutie." Now she is secretary for Clamour Magazine. She and her roving reporter, REID CRAFT, just came in.

Goodness! What's this coming here! Why, it's LINDE CHAPMAN. He's still filibustering for the Republicans.

KENNETH PEGRAM donated most of the food for our banquet tonight. He owns the Pegram Garnished Foods, Inc.

CAROLYN LOWDER used all her artistic ability to decorate for our banquet.

NANCY HUTCHENS and RALPH HUFFMAN are touring the moon while demonstrating their new discovery of how to lose weight. It's the new "whiffo-lose-it" pills. They say it really does wonders!

Well, I guess you can see that the past twelve years have been fruitful ones. I think I had better get on over to the table. The dinner is about to get into full swing! I guess I have done enough talking for now. (Of course, you all know that is my favorite pastime!)

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of Southwest, realizing that the close of our school days is near at hand, do hereby decree this document to be our Last Will and Testament.

During our high school days we have accumulated various and valuable possessions. Our years have been fruitful and we think it wise to leave something to those in the future who will undertake to fill our places.

ARTICLE I

Section I

To our faithful, dependable, and long-suffering principal, Mr. Simpson we leave our heart-felt gratitude for his helpfulness and co-operation in leading us to our goal.

Section II

To our sponsors Miss Cook, Mr. Wilson, Miss Farthing, and Miss Campbell, to whom we are much indebted for their leadership and guidance, we leave our gratitude and best wishes.

Section III

We, the Senior Class, leave to the faculty, who have so patiently borne with us throughout these 'trying years," our sincere thankfulness and appreciation.

Section IV

To our parents, who have helped to make this school our second home and who sacrficed for our education,we can only say "thank you."

Section V

The Senior Class wishes to express its appreciation to the cafeteria staff for the well prepared meals.

Section VI

To the rising Senior Class we leave our unwavering ability to produce cheerfulness throughout the halls and remember, Juniors. next year you will be the "big wheels."

Section VII

To the Sophomore Class we leave our ability to have orderly class meetings.

Section VIII

We, the Seniors, do leave to the Freshmen our cunning methods of dealing with the faculty.

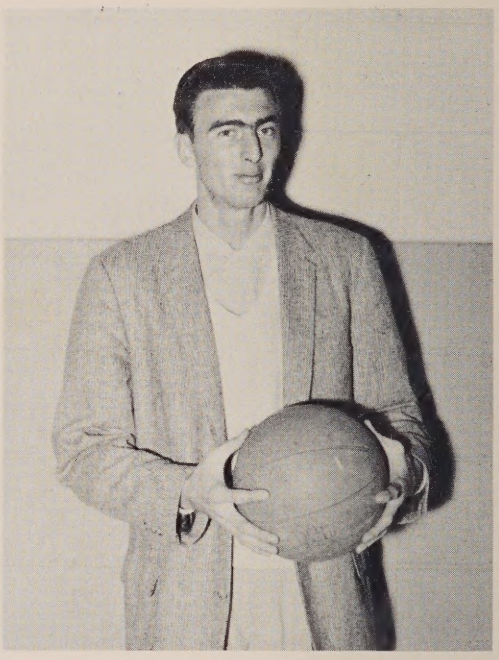
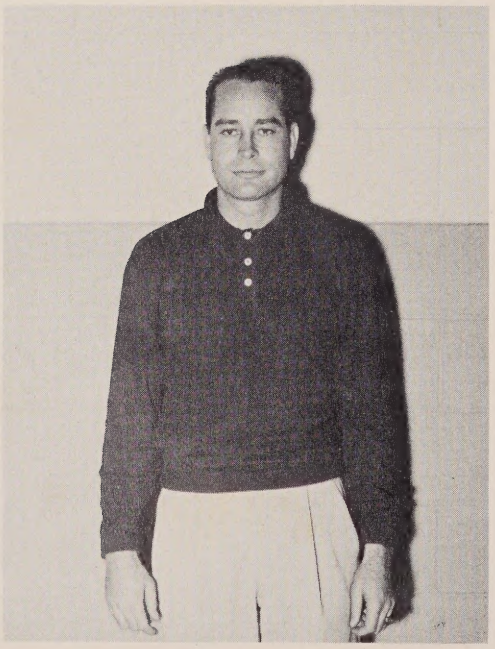
MR. JOE POPP

Energetic Joe Popp advocates football as the greatest sport in the world, and teaches the boys to love it. A native of Pennsylvania, Mr. Popp was a football, basketball, baseball and track man in high school. He graduated from Catawba College where he played both football and basketball. One of the greatest things he has done is to instill the desire to play football in the Southwest boys.



MR. JAMES MAST

As the County's basketball Coach of the Year, Mr. Mast led the Trojans to a record seven times better than the one of last year and went to the finals in the county tournament. He played four years of high school basketball at Cove Creek. At Appalachian State Teachers College, he was captain of the team his senior year and was named most valuable player.



MR. FRANK ROBINSON

Southwest should feel fortunate in having Mr. Robinson as baseball coach. He attended the University of North Carolina where he led the team to the Southeastern and Southern Conference championships. After graduation he played in nine different leagues. He pitched for the Philadelphia Athletics until he developed arm trouble. Mr. Robinson taught at South Fork before coming to Southwest.

Staff

MISS FRANCES COOK

The girls' basketball team has been fortunate in having Miss Cook as their coach. She played four years of high school basketball before attending Appalachian State Teachers College from which she graduated. Her hobby is sports, and she has participated in softball and table tennis as well as basketball.

MR. DIXON ROBERTS

Mr. Roberts, a graduate of Appalachian State Teachers College, brought a new sport to this area, wrestling. We are very grateful for the many hours that he spent in building the only wrestling squad in the county.

MR. GILMER BINKLEY

Mr. Binkley, the cheerleading sponsor, has shown much guidance and understanding to our cheerleaders. His faithful efforts to help them at all times has meant very much to each member of the cheerleading squad.

In Memoriam

JAMES FULTON McMILLAN

His exemplary character; his enthusiasm for clean play and wit; his friendly and unselfish attitude; his winning smile; and his helpful personality made him an inspiration to both students and teachers.
